

To: Stavnes, Sandra[Stavnes.Sandra@epa.gov]
From: US Environmental Protection Agency Alumni and Employees
Sent: Wed 7/2/2014 4:29:22 PM
Subject: EPA Employees Told to Stop Pooping in the Hallway (GovExec.com)

Groups

Popular discussions in:
US Environmental Protection
Agency Alumni and Employees

View all discussions

EPA Employees Told to Stop Pooping in the Hallway

EPA Employees Told to Stop Pooping in the Hallway (June 25, 2014) By Eric Katz

(GovExec.com)

Kim Gates
Env. Engineer at USEPA Region 4

Environmental...

EPA Employees Told to Stop Pooping in the Hallway
Agency hires consultant to tell it to watch out for misplaced bowel movements.

I've been at EPA Region 6 since 1988, started in the ARA's...
Nancy Yarberry, Records and Information Manager at U.S. EPA

What Kim indicated is occurring in one of the Region 4 restrooms...
Joel Mintz, Professor of Environmental Law at Nova Southeastern University

2 new comments

View
Discussion

Other discussions

Climate Justice

Kim Gates
Env. Engineer at USEPA Region 4

1 new comment

Want to see what's new? View all discussions

Ask a question or share your ideas. Click hereView all discussions

You are receiving Groups Digest emails. Unsubscribe

This email was intended for Sandra Stavnes (Director UIC/FIFRA/OPA Technical Enforcement Program at US EPA). Learn why we included this.

© 2014, LinkedIn Corporation. 2029 Stierlin Ct. Mountain View, CA 94043, USA